

Somac Linen Thread

(100% linen)

PRODUCT DESCRIPTION

Made with exceptionally high quality linen yarn which is twisted, finished and wound down on our specialist machinery here in the U.K.

Somac linen threads are used in some of the finest end products in the world ranging from elite cricket balls to prestige beds.

FEATURES & BENEFITS

- Manufactured in the U.K. from the world's best linen yarn sources, sustainably and ethically produced.
- Finished linen thread can be 2 cord up to 8 cord, depending on customer requirement and application
- Natural low extension properties
- A range of finishes are available including soft, polished, rot proofed or waxed
- Can be dyed to customers requirement subject to minimum dye and production runs
- Wound on to cops or spools in various sizes including 25g, 50g, 250g, 500g and 5Kg

APPLICATION

Leather goods, luggage, parachutes, carpet construction, mattress manufacture, equestrian products, pool and snooker cue whipping, continuous belts, post mortem and embalming applications